[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
PETERSBURG, VA., May 9.—At an adjourned meeting of the City Council this evening, held for the purpose of hearing a report from the Finance Committee of the proposed appropria-tion of $5,000 to aid the move to se-cure the establishment of a national battlefield park, embracing the Civil War battlefields around Petersburg, Charles W. Bland, vice-chairman, reported that the committee had considported that the committee had considered the matter this afternoon, and asked for further time and the appointment of W. N. Jones, president of the Beard of Aldermen; A. D. Hamilton, representing the Council; R. H. Mann, Charles T. Lassiter and William B. McIlwaine, to consider the question with the Finance Committee. This with the Finance Committee with the Finance Committee. This was done by the Council by unanimous vote. The hitch in the matter is the question of the legality of the proposed appropriation, according to the city's charter.

The City Attorney, George Mason, rendered an opinion at the Finance Committee meeting this afternoon that Committee meeting this afternoon that the charter did not authorize it, thus bringing up a question of technical legality, which the committee of lawyers, appointed to-night, will consider. W. B. McIlwaine and C. T. Lassiter addressed the committee in advocacy of the appropriation of the superconsisting. addressed the committee in advocacy of the appropriation. After considering the park question, as the required two-thirds' quorum for appropriations was present, President Patteson asked the chairmen of the various committees what appropriations were needed for work in their respective departments. Each one replied that ne money was needed, whereupon the president congratulated the Council on the unusually gratifying situation.

See How Rifle Was Operated.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
STAUNTON, VA., May 9.—William Campbell, driver for the Adams Express Company, of this city, met with a singular accident this morning. The accident occurred at Staunton Military Academy, directly after young Campbell had delivered a package consigned to Major T. H. Russell, headmany of the school. Major Russell opened the parcel in the office in the presence of Mrs. W. H. Kabie, before Mr. Campbell left the room. The package contained a very handsome automatic twenty-two calibre rifle, which young Campbell wanted to see operated, and when Major Russell untied it the loader worked hard, and in trying to-force it the piece was discharged. The ball struck Mr. Campbell in the left thigh, above the knee, and penetrated the less, going almost through and lodging in the skin on the other side. He was taken to the hospital, where the wound was dressed.

A Nurse's Story

If you are a sufferer from headache, neuralgia, or pain from any cause you should read the following letter from a nurse.

"For sometime I have felt it my duty to write you. I was having my deep to write you. I was having my deep twitter you. I was having my deep twice every week for hendache. All he did for me was to give something to ease the pain. Sometimes the pain was so severe that I could not speak, and members of my family stood over me and gave me medicine every fifteen minutes until I was relieved. A sample of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills fell into my hands, I read the circular very carefully, and found my case described exactly. The next time my head began to ache I took the Pain Pills according to directions and I felt I was getting better, so I sent to the drugglet for a box and took them until I was so much better that I was about the house all the afternoon. I have not had a doctor for headache since. When he met me sometime after he wanted to know how I was, and I told him what I had done, and he replied. "If you have found anything that will help you, attek to It," and so I have not have a nurse I may grateful people. On a neighbor every week for months because she had such awful headaches, but for a long time I dured not suggest anything to her. One du! I met her and I gave her a half a box of Anti-Pain Pills and she used them and has had no dector since. She says they are a great blessing to the rand and, "My dudit you tell me about them before." I could tell you of many similar cases."

The Time to Act is NOW

As long as death is certain and its coming is uncertain, every man with responsibility must admit that the time to act is now. In its sixty-four years of history the Mutual Life has paid its policy holders 738 millions because they acted on the idea that the time to act is now. This vast sum would have been vastly greater had it included the patronage of men with equal means, in equal health, with equal needs, who failed to apply the truth that the time to act is now.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company has done untold good, has brought untold comfort to the needy as it has faithfully discharged its accruing obliga-tions, but it has no way of helping the man who does not come to realize that the time to act is now. Let us show you what can be done to-day.
